Dear Ted:

Attached is a summary on the Intelligence Digest Service, the subject of your note of 8 March 1965. Many knowledgeable people in the intelligence community suspect the substantive validity of this publication but there is no evidence to indicate that it is subversive.
Several prominent people in Government and business circles have received subscription applications similar to the one sent to you and I see no reason for you to be concerned. I would suggest that you drop it carefully in the waste basket and forget all about it.

Faithfully yours,

(Signed) Marshall S. Carter

Dear Pat:

I received this promotion material at my home address, and I don't know anything about the people or the Digest. I am not particularly interested in subscribing, since I am an avid reader of your own output over at the Agency, but I do not want to find out that I am on the subscription list of a subversive or suspect publication and I would appreciate your guidance on the outfit.

Sincerely,
